Today, the meeting between Deputy Chairperson of the Government of the PMR for International Cooperation, Foreign Shtanski and Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Russian Federation to the Republic of Moldova Farit Mukhametshin took place in the Foreign Ministry of the PMR.

During the meeting the sides discussed topical issues of the Russian – Pridnestrovian cooperation, including in implementing the “Rogozin-Shevchuk” Protocol. Special attention was paid to new restriction measures taken by Moldova towards Pridnestrovian producers, unfounded nongranteeing of the Phytosanitary Certificate for exports of Pridnestrovian goods (See <http://mfa-pmr.gov.md/newsid=4604> for more details)

Nina Shtanski called the given circumstance a repressive and discriminatory approach because such restrictions have no legal basis. “We expect official clarifications from the Moldovan side. We reckon the guarantor countries will be involved in this process,” she said.

In the framework of the meeting the Head of Foreign Minister stated a high and growing dynamics of bilateral cooperation between Pridnestrovie and Russia in the context of implementing interdepartmental agreements. Nina Shtanski noted that Russian special departments of the economic sector had already got in direct touch with Pridnestrovian enterprises which will allow to expand exports for export to the Russian Federation.

Besides, Nina Shtanski and Farit Mukhametshin exchanged views on dismantling emergency cableway. The Head of the Pridnestrovian Ministry of Diplomacy noted with satisfaction that technologically difficult dismantling process undertaken by Russian Emergency Services conducted openly with wide media involvement. She reiterated the significance of the event for the Pridnestrovians whose homes are located directly under the constructions threatening the security of the inhabitants. “Dismantling of the emergency cableway is one of the steps in the field of socio-economic cooperation between Pridnestrovie and Moldova achieved in the framework of the negotiation process which was fully realized by the Russian Federation,” – emphasized the Minister.
